A Gathering Prayer from the Roots resources

The glory of God shines in the face of Jesus, who is the image of God.

We see the light of the gospel
in the glory of Christ.

God shines into our hearts,
as a light shines in darkness.

We proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as slaves for Jesus' sake.

Come, let us worship our God.

In the presence of God the prophets quake,
and those who know you fall to their knees.

Open our eyes to see your glory
in the face of Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.

Amen.

A Message from the Church Mouse

When I was a little mouse, one of my favourite songs was "Climb Sunshine Mountain." Some of you may have heard it. Perhaps some of you have even sung it. It goes like this:

*Climb, climb up sunshine mountain,
Heavenly breezes blow.*

*Climb, climb up sunshine mountain,
Faces all aglow*

*Turn, turn from sin and sorrow,
Look to God on high.*

*Climb, climb up sunshine mountain
You and I.*

For the children:

Isn't that a great song? It reminds me of a day when Jesus and some of his disciples decided to climb a mountain. The Bible tells us that Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up on a high mountain. When they were alone on the mountain, Jesus' appearance began to change and his clothes became dazzling white and shone as bright as the sun. Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking to Jesus. The disciples became very excited, but as you can imagine, they were also a little bit afraid. As usual, Peter was the first to speak. He told Jesus that they should stay up there on the mountain and build three tabernacles. One for Jesus, one for Moses, and one for Elijah. All of a sudden, a cloud appeared and the voice of God came from the cloud saying, "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!" Then Moses and Elijah disappeared and the disciples were alone again with Jesus. You and I may never have an experience on the mountain top like the one that Peter, James, and John had, but we can "Climb Sunshine Mountain" if we will stay close to Jesus and walk with him each and every day.

Dear Father, we want to walk with Jesus and let his light shine on us. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
